

Simple Past Übungen

Die Verbformen

Für die richtige Verbform im Simple Past musst du zwischen regelmäßigen und unregelmäßigen Verben unterscheiden. Bei regelmäßigen Verben hängst du an die Grundform ein -ed an. Bei unregelmäßigen Verben verwendest du die zweite Verbform, die Simple Past-Form.

1. Schreibe die Vergangenheitsform der jeweiligen Verben.

do -> _____

spot -> _____

go -> _____ think -> _____ worry -> _____

have -> _____

2. Was oder were?

I _____ hungry.

Romy Schneider _____ a great actress.

Sarah and Elif _____ at home.

Ahmed _____ in New Zealand last year.

Trudy and Bartosz _____ not at home.

3. Setze die Sätze ins Simple Past.

Ahmed sells his old bike. -> _____.

Theresa and Ahmed meet in the park. -> _____.

Bartosz writes poems. -> _____.

I buy a new dress for my birthday. -> _____.

Sarah never wears dresses. -> _____.

Vlad speaks English very well. ->

4. Setze die richtige Verbform ein.

Since they have been children, Trudy and Bartosz _____ (to be) best friends. They _____ (to meet) several times a week. On Monday they mostly _____ (to spend) their time in the garden, even if it _____ (to rain). Tuesdays and Thursdays they _____ (to play) football in the youth team of their local football club. When they _____ (to grow) older, they _____ (to watch) horror movies together every Friday night. Even on weekends they _____ (to hang up) together although they _____ (to be) very different. Bartosz _____ (to enjoy) going to the museum and in the library. He _____ (to breed) plants and _____ (to read) at least one book a week. Trudy _____ (to be) the adventurer. She _____ (to climb) on mountains and even _____ (to dive) on the Great Barrier Reef. That's why she _____ (to want) to become a professional diver. Bartosz _____ (to dream) about writing his own book about dangerous killer plants.

Simple Past Übungen

Die Verbformen: Lösungen

did spotted went thought worried

had

5. Was oder were?

I was hungry.

Romy Schneider was a great actress.

Sarah and Elif were at home.

Ahmed was in New Zealand last year.

Trudy and Bartosz were not not at home.

6. Setze die Sätze ins Simple Past.

Ahmed sold his old bike.

Theresa and Ahmed met in the park.

Bartosz wrote poems.

Sarah never wore dresses.

Vlad spoke English very well.

7. Setze die richtige Verbform ein.

Since they have been children, Trudy and Bartosz were (to be) best friends. They met (to meet) several times a week. On Monday they mostly spent (to spend) their time in the garden, even if it rained (to rain). Tuesdays and Thursdays they played (to play) football in the youth team of their local football club. When they grew (to grow) older, they watched (to watch) horror movies together every Friday night. Even on weekends they hang up (to hung up) together although they were (to be) very different. Bartosz enjoyed (to enjoy) going to the museum and in the library. He bred (to breed) plants and read (to read) at least one book a week. Trudy was (to be) the adventurer. She climbed (to climb) on mountains and even dived (to dive) on the Great Barrier Reef. That's why she wanted (to want) to become a professional diver. Bartosz dreamed (to dream) about writing his own book about dangerous killer plants.